

■ Fill in the blank with either 'bring' or 'take.' Remember to use the correct tense.

Q1. Can you him the coat he left here, please?

Q2. me the money as soon as possible!

Q3. I'm glad I remembered to an apple to work; now I can eat it before we have lunch in an hour.

Q4. She told me to go home and to my ugly guitar with me.

Q5. Clearly I haven't my own pack of cards, so I'll have to use yours.

Q6. I'm going to my ball with me to the game, in case I can get an autograph.

Q7. Why did you the evidence here?

■ Decide whether each sentence is correct or incorrect.

Q8. Take that book here!

- a) Correct
- b) Incorrect

Q9. He'd like you to take a bottle of water to football practice.

- a) Correct
- b) Incorrect

Q10. If you bring your controller to my house, we can both play when you get here!

- a) Correct
- b) Incorrect

ANSWERS

- Q1. Can you take him the coat he left here, please?
- Q2. Bring me the money as soon as possible!
- Q3. I'm glad I remembered to bring an apple to work; now I can eat it before we have lunch in an hour.
- Q4. She told me to go home and to take my ugly guitar with me.
- Q5. Clearly I haven't brought my own pack of cards, so I'll have to use yours.
- Q6. I'm going to take my ball with me to the game, in case I can get an autograph.
- Q7. Why did you bring the evidence here?
- Q8. Take that book here!
b) Incorrect
- Q9. He'd like you to take a bottle of water to football practice.
a) Correct
- Q10. If you bring your controller to my house, we can both play when you get here!
a) Correct