

The use of Homophones

■ Fill in the gaps in the sentence with 'they're, there,' or 'their.'

- Q1. not coming to the cinema later, because they don't have any money.
- Q2. Could you give the students compositions, please?
- Q3. I thought I wouldn't like the people at this company, but actually really nice.
- Q4. Can you see Joel? I think he's over
- Q5. house is huge, so I think very well-off.
- Q6. Put the tea on the table, please. I'll get it in a minute.

■ Fill in the gaps in the sentence with 'its' or 'it's'.

- Q7. quarter to eight! Quick, hurry, or we'll be late!
- Q8. The cat has fleas, and always scratching behind ears, poor thing.
- Q9. been a very long time since we've seen each other.
- Q10. 'Why do like that doll, Maria?' eyes are so big!'

ANSWERS

- A1. They're not coming to the cinema later, because they don't have any money.
- A2. Could you give the students their compositions, please?
- A3. I thought I wouldn't like the people at this company, but they're actually really nice.
- A4. Can you see Joel? I think he's over there.
- A5. Their house is huge, so I think they're very well-off.
- A6. Put the tea there on the table, please. I'll get it in a minute.
- A7. It's quarter to eight! Quick, hurry, or we'll be late!
- A8. The cat has fleas, and it's always scratching behind its ears, poor thing.
- A9. It's been a very long time since we've seen each other.
- A10. 'Why do like that doll, Maria?' its eyes are so big!