

Is it a bird? Is it a plane? No, it's an adverb!

■ Place the adverbs (shown in brackets) in the correct places in the sentences below.

Q1. The manager has left the company (already)

.....

Q2. He went to Tokyo (never)

.....

Q3. You failed the test (unfortunately)

.....

Q4. I like Barça (really)

.....

Q5. The old man walked to the shops (slowly)

.....

ANSWERS

- A1. The manager has already left the company. (Adverb of time)
- A2. He never went to Tokyo. (Adverb of frequency)
- A3. Unfortunately, you failed the test. (Evaluative adverb)
- A4. I really like Barça. (Adverb of degree)
- A5. The old man slowly walked to the shops. (Adverb of manner)