

■ Place the adverbs in parenthesis in the sentences given.

Q1. I want to have coffee after lunch. (never)

.....

Q2. He doesn't ask that type of question. (often)

.....

Q3. They keep their boards. (in the closet)

.....

Q4. She walked home. (quickly)

.....

Q5. I need to check my account balance. (next week)

.....

Q6. You have been waiting. (always)

.....

Q7. He landed. (badly)

.....

Q8. We asked to be given these seats. (occasionally)

.....

Q9. I can't figure out how to turn on the blender. (even)

.....

Q10. If you like coffee, does that mean you like tea? (also)

.....

ANSWERS

- A1. I never want to have coffee after lunch.
- A2. He doesn't often ask that type of question.
- A3. They keep their boards in the closet.
- A4. She walked home quickly
She quickly walked home.
- A5. I need to check my account balance next week.
Next week I need to check my account balance.
- A6. You have always been waiting.
- A7. He landed badly.
- A8. We occasionally asked to be given these seats.
- A9. I can't even figure out how to turn on the blender.
- A10. If you like coffee, does that mean you also like tea?