

'As' y sus muchos usos

■ Rewrite the following sentences without using the word as.

Q1. As Sarah was walking to school, it was snowing.

.....

Q2. I watched her as she played with the children in the playground.

.....
.....

Q3. As this month has five weeks, I will have to be careful to make my money last as much as possible.

.....
.....

Q4. As the trains are not running today, we will have to catch a bus if we want to go to Marseilles.

.....
.....

Q5. Try to cut the fish up exactly as I have done it and you won't have any problems.

.....
.....

Q6. Mike is as heavy as Frank and therefore it is fair for them to fight each other.

.....
.....

Q7. Her eyes are the same colour as mine.

.....
.....

Q8. We have offices in cities all over Asia, such as Tokyo, Kyoto, Seoul, Beijing, Gwangju and Hangzhou.

.....
.....

© Callan School of English S.L. - 2018

ANSWERS

- A1. While Sarah was walking to school, it was snowing.
- A2. I watched her when/while she played with the children in the playground.
- A3. Because/since this month has five weeks, I will have to be careful to make my money last as much as possible.
- A4. Because/since the trains are not running today, we will have to catch a bus if we want to go to Marseilles.
- A5. Try to cut the fish up exactly in the same way I have done it and you won't have any problems.
- A6. Mike and Frank are equally heavy/of equal weight and therefore it is fair for them to fight each other.
- A7. Me and her/she and I have the same colour eyes.
- A8. We have offices in cities all over Asia, for example Tokyo, Kyoto, Seoul, Beijing, Gwangju and Hangzhou.