

■ Re-write the sentences using an auxiliary verb.

Q1. Why don't we have a drink?

.....

Q2. Perhaps I'll go to the pub this weekend.

.....

Q3. Patrick was able to swim fast when he was a boy.

.....

Q4. You are not permitted to use a camera here.

.....

Q5. It's expensive, so it's a good idea that you bring a credit card too.

.....

■ Change the following sentences into questions.

Q6. You have read that book.

.....

Q7. She likes coffee.

.....

Q8. We ought to sit down and talk.

.....

Q9. They went to the cinema yesterday.

.....

Q10. John will do it.

.....

ANSWERS

- A1. Shall we have a drink?
- A2. I might (or may) go to the pub this weekend.
- A3. Patrick could swim fast when he was a boy.
- A4. You can't (or mustn't) use a camera here.
- A5. It's expensive, so you should (or ought to) bring a credit card too.
-
- A6. Have you read that book?
- A7. Does she like coffee?
- A8. Ought we to sit down and talk?
- A9. Did they go to the cinema yesterday?
- A10. Will John do it?