

- Complete the sentences below using the idioms provided.
You may need to change tense and/or person to suit the sentence.

Bob's your uncle
do a Devon Loch
chew the fat

hell freezes over
as mad as a hatter

- Q1. I'm not sure about her new boyfriend. He seems ..... and could be a bad influence.
- Q2. We should go for a beer sometime so we can .....
We don't talk much any more.
- Q3. His football team will never win the championship! .....
before that happens.
- Q4. Just press the button to start the cycle and .....! Your clothes will be dry in no time.
- Q5. I'm terrified Andy Murray will ..... and throw away his commanding lead in the Final.

ANSWERS

- A1. I'm not sure about her new boyfriend. He seems as mad as a hatter and could be a bad influence.
- A2. We should go for a beer sometime so we can chew the fat. We don't talk much any more.
- A3. His football team will never win the championship! Hell will freeze over before that happens.
- A4. Just press the button to start the cycle and Bob's your uncle! Your clothes will be dry in no time.
- A5. I'm terrified Andy Murray will do a Devon Loch and throw away his commanding lead in the Final.