

■ You are given two sentences which you must re-write as one sentence using a relative clause.

Q1. There is a dog. The dog is white.

.....

Q2. I saw a car pass by. The car was blue.

.....

Q3. I am reading a newspaper. I bought it in the shop.

.....

Q4. He sold his car. His car was old.

.....

Q5. He has a friend. His friend works in a bakery.

.....

Q6. They have a cousin. Their cousin is rich.

.....

Q7. I saw a man in the street. The man was very strange.

.....

Q8. We are painting a house. The house is very big.

.....

Q9. She was listening to music. The music was very loud.

.....

Q10. I wrote a book. The book sold a lot of copies.

.....

ANSWERS

- A1. There is a dog, which (that) is white.
- A2. I saw a car pass by, which (that) was blue.
- A3. I am reading a newspaper, which (that) I bought in the shop.
- A4. He sold his car, which (that) was old.
- A5. He has a friend, who (that) works in a bakery.
- A6. They have a cousin, who (that) is rich.
- A7. I saw a man in the street, who (that) was very strange.
- A8. We are painting a house, which (that) is very big.
- A9. She was listening to music, which (that) was very loud.
- A10. I wrote a book, which (that) sold a lot of copies.