

■ Llene los huecos en las siguientes frases con die, dead o death.

Q1. Most people before they are 100 years old.

Q2. My tooth is, so the dentist will have to extract it.

Q3. is an unpleasant subject to speak about.

Q4. Antonio Banderas is not, he is alive.

Q5. Napoleon is not, he is dead.

Q6. Martin Luther King in 1968.

Q7. Most people don't like talking about

Q8. We use the colour black for

Q9. John's grandmother is but his grandfather is still alive.

Q10. My grandfather had already when I was born.

ANSWERS

- A1. Most people die before they are 100 years old.
- A2. My tooth is dead, so the dentist will have to extract it.
- A3. Death is an unpleasant subject to speak about.
- A4. Antonio Banderas is not dead, he is alive.
- A5. Napoleon is not alive, he is dead.
- A6. Martin Luther King died in 1968.
- A7. Most people don't like talking about death.
- A8. We use the colour black for death.
- A9. John's grandmother is dead but his grandfather is still alive.
- A10. My grandfather had already died when I was born.