

Easter Traditions in England

■ Match the tradition with the country that celebrates Easter in that manner.

Q1. France

Pot-throwing from balconies onto the streets.

Q2. Corfu (Greece)

Men playfully spank women with handmade whips made from willow and decorated with ribbons.

Q3. Vatican City

Men spray perfume or water on women and ask for a kiss.

Q4. Czech Republic

Chocolate eggs are delivered by bells in people's gardens.

Q5. Hungary

A huge cross with burning torches illuminates the sky as the fourteen stations of the cross are read out in various languages.

Q6. Finland

Children dress up as little witches and go around the streets begging for chocolate.

ANSWERS

- A1. France — Pot-throwing from balconies onto the streets.
- A2. Corfu (Greece) — Men playfully spank women with handmade whips made from willow and decorated with ribbons.
- A3. Vatican City — Men spray perfume or water on women and ask for a kiss.
- A4. Czech Republic — Chocolate eggs are delivered by bells in people's gardens.
- A5. Hungary — A huge cross with burning torches illuminates the sky as the fourteen stations of the cross are read out in various languages.
- A6. Finland — Children dress up as little witches and go around the streets begging for chocolate.