

Idioms including parts of the body

- Complete the sentences below by choosing the correct idiom for each one. Note that you may need to change the idiom into the correct tense and use the correct pronouns/adjectives, etc. as necessary.

catch red-handed
get something off (one's) chest
sweet tooth

cold feet
bite (one's) lip

- Q1. I love chocolate! I have such a .....
- Q2. Jane said that she needed to .....
. I wonder what she wants to say.
- Q3. You've been very distant these last few weeks. Are you having .....
about the wedding?
- Q4. The boy had no defence - he had been .....
pulling his sister's hair.
- Q5. Whenever I see them together I have to ..... I think she treats him really badly but I don't want to upset him by saying something.

Idioms including parts of the body

ANSWERS

- A1. I love chocolate! I have such a sweet tooth.
- A2. Jane said that she needed to get something off her chest. I wonder what she wants to say.
- A3. You've been very distant these last few weeks. Are you having cold feet about the wedding?
- A4. The boy had no defence - he had been caught red-handed pulling his sister's hair.
- A5. Whenever I see them together I have to bite my lip. I think she treats him really badly but I don't want to upset him by saying something.