

Mixed Conditionals (2)

■ Fill in the gaps using mixed conditionals. Use the verbs in brackets to help you.

- Q1. If we (study) for the exam, we (be able) to do it now.
- Q2. If they (like) him, they (invited) him to the party.
- Q3. If she (to be) so busy, she (to go) to the party last week.
- Q4. If I (to go) to bed late last night, I (to be) very tired now.
- Q5. If you (to be) nicer, you (to make) more friends.
- Q6. If I (to be) rich, I (to buy) that boat yesterday.
- Q7. If you (to be) the boss's son, you (to be) fired.
- Q8. If they (to finish) the job on time, they (to have to) work tonight.
- Q9. If you (to be) the manager, they (to do) what you told them to.
- Q10. If he (to buy) the map, we (to be) lost now.

ANSWERS

- A1. If we had studied for the exam, we would be able to do it now.
- A2. If they liked him, they would have invited him to the party.
- A3. If she wasn't so busy, she would have gone to the party last week.
- A4. If I had gone to bed late last night, I would be very tired now.
- A5. If you were nicer, you would have made more friends.
- A6. If I was rich, I would have bought that boat yesterday.
- A7. If you weren't the boss's son, you would have been fired.
- A8. If they had finished the job on time, they wouldn't have to work tonight.
- A9. If you were the manager, they would have done what you told them to.
- A10. If he had bought the map, we wouldn't be lost now.