

Nouns That Become Adjectives

■ Complete sentences Q1-Q10 using the words in brackets.

- Q1. When I was at school my (teacher/geography) was the most boring teacher that we had.
- Q2. I don't like having to pay my taxes every year but at least the (office/tax) isn't far from my house.
- Q3. Lydia forgot her (shoes/ballet) so she had to do her dance class in her trainers instead.
- Q4. It was raining last Saturday, but we still had a good time visiting an (exhibition/art).
- Q5. I need to go to a (shop/shoe) as I have to go to a wedding next weekend and I don't have any smart shoes to wear.
- Q6. The Tour de France is one of the most famous (races/bicycle) in the world.
- Q7. I couldn't find any candlestick holders and so I put the candle in an old (bottle/wine) instead.
- Q8. My mother bought me these (cups/coffee) for my birthday last year and so I will be careful not to break them.
- Q9. David has lost so much weight that his old (shirt/rugby) is hanging off him and doesn't seem to fit him anymore.
- Q10. Leanne loves reading and always has her nose in a book so people call her a (worm/book).

ANSWERS

- A1. When I was at school my geography teacher was the most boring teacher that we had.
- A2. I don't like having to pay my taxes every year but at least the tax office isn't far from my house.
- A3. Lydia forgot her ballet shoes so she had to do her dance class in her trainers instead.
- A4. It was raining last Saturday, but we still had a good time visiting an art exhibition.
- A5. I need to go to a shoe shop as I have to go to a wedding next weekend and I don't have any smart shoes to wear.
- A6. The Tour de France is one of the most famous bicycle races in the world.
- A7. I couldn't find any candlestick holders and so I put the candle in an old wine bottle instead.
- A8. My mother bought me these coffee cups for my birthday last year and so I will be careful not to break them.
- A9. David has lost so much weight that his old rugby shirt is hanging off him and doesn't seem to fit him anymore.
- A10. Leanne loves reading and always has her nose in a book so people call her a bookworm.