

■ Match the following numberconnected idioms to their definitions below:

Q1. To second guess (verb)

Q2. Give me five

Q3. Nine times out of ten

Q4. Back to square one

Q5. Put two and two together

a) The probability that something will happen.

b) Have to start something all over again.

c) To predict what someone will do.

d) To deduce from available evidence.

e) To celebrate by slapping one's open hand against another person's open hand.

ANSWERS

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| A1. To second guess (verb) | a) The probability that something will happen. |
| A2. Give me five | b) Have to start something all over again. |
| A3. Nine times out of ten | c) To predict what someone will do. |
| A4. Back to square one | d) To deduce from available evidence. |
| A5. Put two and two together | e) To celebrate by slapping one's open hand against another person's open hand. |