

Phrasal Verbs with 'Put'

■ Fill in the gaps using the three phrasal verbs 'put up,' 'put off,' and 'put out.' Put the verb in the correct tense.

- Q1. This bad review has really me going to the restaurant.
- Q2. I know I'm asking you to help me; I hope it's not you too much.
- Q3. You'd rather do something else, but the best idea is to avoid it and doing it right away instead.
- Q4. I'm the boss; I don't have to with this!
- Q5. Don't worry about finding a hotel; I can you for a few days.
- Q6. He's such a procrastinator; he always things until the last moment.
- Q7. If you complain, she'll just tell you to with it.
- Q8. He'll keep asking you for things; he doesn't know when he's you
- Q9. Her attitude has really me coming back.
- Q10. Whenever I John, he doesn't seem to take the hint when I start asking him when he's planning on leaving!

ANSWERS

- A1. This bad review has really put me off going to the restaurant.
- A2. I know I'm asking you to help me; I hope it's not putting you out too much.
- A3. You'd rather do something else, but the best idea is to avoid putting it off and doing it right away instead.
- A4. I'm the boss; I don't have to put up with this!
- A5. Don't worry about finding a hotel; I can put you up for a few days.
- A6. He's such a procrastinator; he always puts things off until the last moment.
- A7. If you complain, she'll just tell you to put up with it.
- A8. He'll keep asking you for things; he doesn't know when he's putting you out.
- A9. Her attitude has really put me off coming back.
- A10. Whenever I put John up, he doesn't seem to take the hint when I start asking him when he's planning on leaving!