

Remember vs Remind

■ Fill in the gaps with either remember or remind. Don't forget to put the verbs in the correct tense.

Q1. He didn't ..... the formula and couldn't solve the mathematics problem.

Q2. .... to hold your breath when you jump into the river.

Q3. That ..... me of when I was a young man, so young and full of dreams!

Q4. .... me, what was your name?

Q5. I'll always ..... the time we made the teacher cry, it was horrible!

Q6. Does this music ..... you of anything in particular?

Q7. It was the strangest feeling, like he was ..... me of someone I'd never met.

Q8. They never ..... to give the teacher their homework.

Q9. John ..... me so much of his father, it's uncanny!

Q10. My mother always ..... me to wash my sheets once a week.

ANSWERS

- A1. He didn't remember the formula and couldn't solve the mathematics problem.
- A2. Remember to hold your breath when you jump into the river.
- A3. That reminds me of when I was a young man, so young and full of dreams!
- A4. Remind me, what was your name?
- A5. I'll always remember the time we made the teacher cry, it was horrible!
- A6. Does this music remind you of anything in particular?
- A7. It was the strangest feeling, like he was reminding me of someone I'd never met.
- A8. They never remember to give the teacher their homework.
- A9. John reminds me so much of his father, it's uncanny!
- A10. My mother always reminds me to wash my sheets once a week.