

■ Fill in the blanks with an appropriate sports idiom.

Q1. This fight is going It will be close right to the end.

Q2. When his dog died it really hit him

Q3. The argument seemed like it was Nothing was off limits.

Q4. He did really well on the presentation. He hit it

Q5. When things are going wrong sometimes it is easier just to roll

Q6. The project was so easy. It was a

Q7. My new car was crashed into by another car. But it was okay. I took it

Q8. The topic was right in his He knew everything about it.

Q9. He came up from behind me and me.

Q10. He was hindering the deal at every turn. He didn't want to

ANSWERS

- A1. This fight is going down to the wire. It will be close right to the end.
- A2. When his dog died it really hit him for six.
- A3. The argument seemed like it was no holds barred. Nothing was off limits.
- A4. He did really well on the presentation. He hit it out of the park.
- A5. When things are going wrong sometimes it is easier just to roll with the punches.
- A6. The project was so easy. It was a slam dunk.
- A7. My new car was crashed into by another car. But it was okay. I took it on the chin.
- A8. The topic was right in his wheelhouse. He knew everything about it.
- A9. He came up from behind me and sucker punched me.
- A10. He was hindering the deal at every turn. He didn't want to play ball.