

- Complete the following sentences using the correct idioms and phrases shown below.

baking hot beat the heat

thrown in at the deep end

making hay while the sun shines

one swallow doesn't make a summer

- Q1. He's bought a huge electric fan. He's planning to this year.
- Q2. It's out there today. You could fry eggs on the pavement!
- Q3. It's good news about your first exam results but remember,
You still have five more exams to go!
- Q4. I'm really stressed at work. My boss has me with this new client.
- Q5. Her children are on holiday so she's getting on with cleaning the house. She's

ANSWERS

- A1. He's bought a huge electric fan. He's planning to beat the heat this year.
- A2. It's baking hot out there today. You could fry eggs on the pavement!
- A3. It's good news about your first exam results but remember, one swallow doesn't make a summer. You still have five more exams to go!
- A4. I'm really stressed at work. My boss has thrown me in at the deep end with this new client.
- A5. Her children are on holiday so she's getting on with cleaning the house. She's making hay while the sun shines.