

■ Put a tail question at the end of the following sentences

Q1. We should study for the exam,

Q2. Tim broke his leg last year,

Q3. You won't do that again,

Q4. They don't have time,

Q5. Those blue jays are beautiful,

Q6. Marsha has never studied English,

Q7. He's going to play,

Q8. Mr. Smith's son'll be here tomorrow,

Q9. She goes to the café every day,

Q10. Julian hasn't got any teeth,

ANSWERS

- A1. We should study for the exam, shouldn't we?
- A2. Tim broke his leg last year, didn't he?
- A3. You won't do that again, will you?
- A4. They don't have time, do they?
- A5. Those blue jays are beautiful, aren't they?
- A6. Marsha has never studied English, has she?
- A7. He's going to play, isn't he?
- A8. Mr. Smith's son'll be here tomorrow, won't he?
- A9. She goes to the café every day, doesn't she?
- A10. Julian hasn't got any teeth, has he?