

■ Exercise I

Fill in the gaps using the present perfect tense.

E.g. I have (eat) eaten too much.

- Q1. They have (be) here for two hours.
- Q2. I have (play) tennis for two years.
- Q3. He has (sing) that song every day this week.
- Q4. She has (write) a book.
- Q5. We have (give) a speech to the public.

■ Exercise II

Choose which use of the present perfect tense matches each sentence.

E.g. I have been here for two hours.

Answer: to talk about the duration of an action before and up to now.

- Q6. They have eaten all the food.
Answer:
- Q7. I have been to Rome.
Answer:
- Q8. He has lived here for a week.
Answer:
- Q9. She has given them a lot of home work.
Answer:
- Q10. We have seen that film.
Answer:

ANSWERS

Exercise I

- A1. They have (be) been here for two hours.
- A2. I have (play) played tennis for two years.
- A3. He has (sing) sung that song every day this week.
- A4. She has (write) written a book.
- A5. We have (give) given a speech to the public.

Exercise II

- A6. They have eaten all the food.
Answer: The result now of a past action.
- A7. I have been to Rome.
Answer: Talking about our experiences.
- A8. He has lived here for a week.
Answer: The duration of an action before and up to now.
- A9. She has given them a lot of home work.
Answer: The result now of a past action.
- A10. We have seen that film.
Answer: Talking about our experiences.