

The reciprocal pronouns in English

■ Choose the correct option to fill the gap provided.

Each other

One another

- Q1. My mother and I looked at in surprise.
- Q2. The six friends buy drinks from time to time.
- Q3. "We need to stop going to war against", the NATO delegates agreed.
- Q4. The effects of the coffee and the beer cancel out.
- Q5. Albert and Sally never agree with
- Q6. I love you! You love me! We love
- Q7. The rest of the people in my mathematics class copy from during the exam.
- Q8. "If we don't help every now and again, we won't survive," Jackson said to Jeffrey.
- Q9. The best club teams in Europe play football against
- Q10. The company employees send emails to communicate.

ANSWERS

- A1. My mother and I looked at each other in surprise.
- A2. The six friends buy one another drinks from time to time.
- A3. "We need to stop going to war against one another," the NATO delegates agreed.
- A4. The effects of the coffee and the beer cancel each other out.
- A5. Albert and Sally never agree with each other.
- A6. I love you! You love me! We love each other.
- A7. The rest of the people in my mathematics class copy from one another during the exam.
- A8. "If we don't help each other every now and again, we won't survive," Jackson said to Jeffrey.
- A9. The best club teams in Europe play football against one another.
- A10. The company employees send one another emails to communicate.