

The Third Conditional

■ Put the following Second Conditional sentences into the Third Conditional.

Q1. If I knew, I would go.

.....

Q2. If he went to the cinema, he would buy some popcorn.

.....

Q3. If Sally saw the swan, she would swoon.

.....

Q4. If they cooked, it would be a disaster.

.....

Q5. She would be happy if Peter came.

.....

Q6. If I didn't understand, I would say so.

.....

Q7. I would hate him if he did that!

.....

Q8. Julie would pay if she had the money to.

.....

Q9. If Andy wore floral ties, everybody would love him even more.

.....

Q10. Alex would be able to participate if the questions weren't so hard.

.....

ANSWERS

- A1. If I had known, I would have gone.
- A2. If he had gone to the cinema, he would have bought some popcorn.
- A3. If Sally had seen the swan, she would have swooned.
- A4. If they had cooked, it would have been a disaster.
- A5. She would have been happy if Peter had come.
- A6. If I hadn't understood, I would have said so.
- A7. I would have hated him if he had done that!
- A8. Julie would have paid if she had had the money to.
- A9. If Andy had worn floral ties, everybody would have loved him even more.
- A10. Alex would have been able to participate if the questions hadn't been so hard.