

■ Choose between two, too and to to complete the sentences below

Q1. I hate it when she invites many people to parties.

Q2. It's hot to play tennis, let's go to the beach instead!

Q3. If the students need ask a question, they should raise their hand.

Q4. I'll have hamburgers and three orders of fries, please; I'm hungry!

Q5. He promised stop smoking.

Q6. You're talking fast, I can't understand what you're saying!

Q7. He did very well on his exam, he only made mistakes.

Q8. The boss would like congratulate you on your accomplishment.

Q9. Normally we don't say '..... times;' we say 'twice' instead.

Q10. There is such a thing as much chocolate.

ANSWERS

- A1. I hate it when she invites too many people to parties.
- A2. It's too hot to play tennis, let's go to the beach instead!
- A3. If the students need to ask a question, they should raise their hand.
- A4. I'll have two hamburgers and three orders of fries, please; I'm hungry!
- A5. He promised to stop smoking.
- A6. You're talking too fast, I can't understand what you're saying!
- A7. He did very well on his exam, he only made two mistakes.
- A8. The boss would like to congratulate you on your accomplishment.
- A9. Normally we don't say 'two times;' we say 'twice' instead.
- A10. There is such a thing as too much chocolate.