

■ Choose the correct meaning of the word 'mind' in the sentences below.

Q1. Do you mind if I order the pizza now?

- a) object to b) be careful of c) consider d) look after

Q2. Don't mind me! I'm leaving in a minute.

- a) object to b) be careful of c) consider d) look after

Q3. Mind your head, the cupboard is quite low!

- a) object to b) be careful of c) consider d) look after

Q4. You can go out with your friends; I'll mind the dog.

- a) object to b) be careful of c) consider d) look after

Q5. I don't mind taking the bus to work.

- a) object to b) be careful of c) consider d) look after

■ Re-write the sentences below without using the word 'mind.'

Q6. Mind that door, you're so tall!

.....

Q7. Don't mind what she says, she's just jealous.

.....

Q8. Would you mind if I opened the window?

.....

Q9. She minds the children in the morning and I mind them in the afternoon.

.....

Q10. I don't want chicken anymore, I've changed my mind.

.....

ANSWERS

- A1. Object to.
- A2. Consider.
- A3. Be careful of.
- A4. Look after.
- A5. Object to.

- A6. Be careful of the door, you're so tall!
- A7. Don't consider what she says, she's just jealous.
- A8. Would you object if I opened the window?
- A9. She looks after the children in the morning and I look after them in the afternoon.
- A10. I don't want chicken anymore, I've changed my opinion.